

In their words...

"I don't think people understand how it feels not being able to say mom and dad. Going through foster care, you don't get to say that, you know, that often. And if you do trust somebody enough to say that, who knows how long they'll stick around."

Your tax-deductible donations are greatly appreciated and will help us design our first Generations Together Community.

We are participating in America's Giving Challenge. The 8 organizations with the most donors win $50,000. Even a $10 donation counts towards our goal.

Help Us Raise $50,000!
Deadline: January 31, 2008

For your donation to qualify for the challenge, you must donate through our contest "badge" (left).

You may also donate by check. Mail your check to:
