In their words...

"I turned 18 a month before I graduated from high school. The day after graduation, I was kicked out of my foster home where I'd been living for two years. I was 18, a high school graduate on my way to college in the fall, and I was homeless."
– Nicole, Former Foster Youth

Board of Directors

Beth Fraker - President
Founder and Executive Director, Generations Together

Beth spent 10 years managing marketing programs and teams for several large high-tech companies prior to founding Generations Together. Over her life, she has consistently volunteered for programs with an outreach to at-risk youth and the elderly. As an adoptee herself who was briefly in foster care as an infant, she has a personal connection to the children who are the focus of Generations Together. She wants all children to be as blessed as she was to receive a loving, permanent family.

Todd Johnson – Chairman
Senior Vice President, Worldwide Marketing, VeriSign, Inc.
During his over 20 years in business, Todd has built and led large and diverse organizations. He has held executive positions for many successful Silicon Valley companies including Hewlett Packard, SGI, BackWeb, Jamcracker and his current SVP post at VeriSign. Todd and his wife, LuAnn, are the proud parents of three beautiful girls; two of whom they adopted.

Dan McClure – Director
Founder and CEO, Generations Community Wellness Centers

After spending 12 years in various management positions within the fitness industry, Dan founded Generations Community Wellness Centers to make fitness and wellness programs accessible to the underserved populations. GCWC develops and runs innovative and affordable programs for at-risk youth and low-income families and seniors through partnerships with other non-profit organizations.

Wendy Irwin, CPA – Director and Chief Financial Officer

Wendy currently divides her time between being a homemaker for her family, a sole proprietor for her part-time accounting practice, and a volunteer for organizations about which she is passionate. Wendy's prior professional experience included 2 years at Deloitte & Touche and 8 years at Scruggs & Company where she was a partner. Her clients included leading organizations in both for-profit and not-for-profit business.
